Corn Roasters

The Pavilion agrees that it will supply with their application either proof of ownership of a Corn Roaster by the Pavilion or a valid leasing agreement which is satisfactory to the Edmonton Heritage Festival Association

The sale of goods originating from pavilions must be 100% culturally authentic—that is, they must directly relate to, or be representative of the culture of that pavilion. No generic products (i.e. “Tupperware, sunglasses, running shoes, cleaning products, Disney merchandise and CD’s”), or foods more closely associated with fairs (i.e. “mini-donuts” or “sno-cones”) are permitted for sale by any pavilion unless a case can be made regarding their cultural authenticity.

Commercial Advertising & Sales : Commercial partners of pavilions are FORBIDDEN from advertising and selling on the site of the Edmonton Heritage Festival. Failure to comply with this regulation will result in significant fines being assessed to the offending pavilions.

National Identity: As for the by laws of the EHFA the only flags that are permitted to be flown or displayed at the Festival are those of Edmonton, Alberta, or Canada.

No overt display of national identity is permitted on the outside of the Pavilion. Inside, the sale of souvenir flags, pins, t shirts, books, videos and calendars sporting a national flag is permitted.

Vehicle passes: All vehicles, including detachable trailers, must have valid vehicle passes. Failure to display a vehicle pass will result in that vehicle being ticketed and towed.

Inappropriate Merchandise: The Edmonton Heritage Festival is a family oriented event and as such inappropriate merchandise exhibiting crude and vulgar words or actions will not be tolerated. The display of political or religious material that is not culturally related is forbidden.
